

Each of our current clients can attest to the personal touch given by each of our executive search consultants and their respective team members. David Gomez and Associates mission is to meet our client's needs with sensitivity to an organization's culture and budget. Our time tested executive search strategy methods deliver the highest qualified executive candidates with attention to diversity considerations, in considerably less time than most search firms. As a boutique headhunting firm, DG&A is able to give a personal touch to every search we are retained on.□
